Team members participating on Dogwood sponsored short-term mission trips are reminded they are ambassadors of Jesus Christ (II Cor. 5:20). As teams serve overseas, they not only represent Jesus, but also represent Christ-followers worldwide, Dogwood Church, our Pastor, the United States, the partnering mission agency and local Christian missionaries. This is a tremendous responsibility. For this reason, the Global Missions department asks that each team member seek to live above reproach in his/her actions and attitudes by agreeing to the following.

1. Team members must submit to the team leader's authority.
2. Due to the political instability and anti-American sentiment in various countries around the world, Dogwood Church asks each member to refrain from expressing political opinions while overseas.
3. Team members chose to limit their freedom by abstaining from the use, consumption, or purchase of alcoholic beverages, tobacco or illegal drugs while on the trip.
4. Team members must adhere to the behavioral guidelines for each specific team set by the team leadership or partnering missions' agency with a mind toward the culture to which the team is going. This will require a servant attitude toward all nationals and team members, as well as a willingness to learn from the lost culture. (I Cor. 9:19-23)

After consultation with the missions department, the team leader reserves the right to ask a problem team member to return home if that team member's behavior is destructive to the team, the ministry, or the host community. Any additional cost incurred as a result of this action will be at the team member's expense. _____ Initial
